Lloyd & Evelyn McNeil Lab & DI Scholarship Application

Longtime supporters of healthcare, Lloyd and Evelyn McNeil want to help recruit and retain committed and compassionate healthcare providers in the Red Deer area. Recognizing and understanding the significant role laboratory professionals play in assisting physicians with the diagnoses of illness; the McNeils established a scholarship to benefit both current and aspiring laboratory services & diagnostic imaging professionals.

In addition to the criteria in cover application form, the donor has requested the successful applicant:

- Must be enrolled in a program full time to build skills that will be applied in the field of laboratory services and diagnostic imaging.

APPLICATION QUESTIONS

In a brief paragraph, explain why you chose your post-secondary field of study.

What are your occupational goals? (within the next five years)?

How will your chosen educational program assist you in meeting your future professional goals?

List any obstacles or challenges that will prevent you from meeting your educational goals.

List three strengths important for professional practice and explain how you are developing these strengths.

Please list community leadership, past achievements, and volunteer activities (within the last three years) in which you have been involved.

Please explain how you have demonstrated commitment to AHS and how you plan to continue to demonstrate commitment to AHS in the Red Deer area in your future career plans.
